

THE DANCE

When I decided to write a monthly article for the Mid-Valley Beekeepers Association I struggled to find a title for the article. My wife and I sat around and thought of a lot of corny titles. Then I thought of how bees communicate and of course -The Dance. It is also my favorite Garth Brooks song so there you go – it's The Dance.

I will be announcing news that I think is appropriate for public information about Bees. As I mentioned several times I am not an authority on bees, I am a novice like a lot of us so if I find something I think is interesting I will share because you will also probably find it interesting. I will send Information to Facebook when I think delaying the message for a once a month newsletter will be too much of a delay.

I have registered Mid-Valley Beekeepers Association as a member of WAS - The Western Apicultural Society and the California Beekeepers Association and I have connected with the Face book page of the Sacramento Beekeepers Association so I will be receiving information from all of them periodically and will forward that information to you as part of this column and I will post information about our club. I encourage you all to make submittals to the web page about things of interest to you and things that you are doing. Communication is important to all organizations – Bee Hives or groups of any kind.

The Sacramento Beekeepers Supply has just announced that they will no longer be selling Packages and Queens They recommend you contact Jeff Becker at The Bee Box for more information or to place an offer. The Bee Box web page is www.thebeebx.com .

The Spease Bees Honey Company, Inc. will be relocating to new facilities at 9110 Union Park Way, Suite 106, Elk Grove. We out grew our current location. We are now in over 80 grocery locations, A couple of breweries several restaurants and a few bakeries and bars. We also have a new Mascot.
